

Joint Hearing
Senate Committee on Natural Resources and Water
Senate Select Committee on the Environment, the Economy and Climate Change

“Climate change adaptation: Impacts in Southern California”

Providing an update for the community on climate change adaptation science, current policy and likely impacts to answer the question “Are we ready for a changing climate in the Los Angeles coastal zone?”

Agenda

Date, time and location:

- Thursday, October 20, 2011, 10 am – 12 noon
 - 9:30 am pre-hearing refreshments sponsored by the Nature Conservancy
- Santa Monica City Hall, City Council Chambers

1. Opening remarks

2. Overview: Science and Policy (40 minutes)

- Dr. Tony Haymet, Director, Scripps Institute of Oceanography
- Julia Levin, Deputy Secretary for Climate Change and Energy, CA Natural Resources Agency

3. Climate Change Adaptation: Environmental & Economic Impacts (45 minutes)

- Matthew Heberger, Senior Research Associate, the Pacific Institute
- Martha Dina Arguello, Executive Director, Physicians for Social Responsibility – Los Angeles
- Louis Blumberg, Director of Climate Change – California, the Nature Conservancy
- Rosi Dagit, Senior Conservation Biologist, Resources Conservation District of the Santa Monica Mountains

4. Public Comment

5. Closing Remarks