

Scott Greacen is Executive Director of Friends of the Eel River. He is a graduate of Reed College and Lewis and Clark Law School, and a member of the California bar. Scott served on the conservation staff of Humboldt County's Environmental Protection Information Center (EPIC) from 2003, and as its Executive Director from 2006 to 2010, when he joined Friends of the Eel River.