

PILOT COALITIONS AND PROGRAMSInnovative County Approaches to Address Interagency Care Coordination for Children with Special Needs

Model	Lead Coordinator	Population Focus	Location & Year Est.	Stakeholder Participation/ Agency Partnership	Objectives	Evidence-Based Outcomes	Funding Mechanism
Committee on Children with Special Needs	Laurie A. Soman	Children and youth with special needs as broadly defined; Age 0-26 yrs.	Alameda County; Est. 1993	30+ members; e.g.: health providers, child-focused public and private agencies, family organizations, health plans, etc.	Identify challenges within systems of care; Identify & implement solutions; Provide information and resources	Recommendations implemented within Medi-Cal managed plans (ie: Alliance, Beacon)	First 5 Alameda; Alameda County Public Health
Pilot CCS Mental Health Stakeholder Coalition	Sheehy, Barbara	Children eligible for CCS; Age 0-21 yrs.	Alameda County; Est. 2015	25+ members; e.g.: health providers, health insurance providers, etc.	Strengthen coordination for Mental Health services	Phase I of Implementation; Still To Be Determined	LPFCH-5Cs Pilot Funding
Medically Vulnerable Care Coordination Project (MVCCP)	Marc Thibault	Children with Special Health Care Needs; Premature infants; Age 0-5 yrs.	Kern County; Est. 2008	40+ members; e.g.: health providers, health insurance providers, etc.	Enhance coordination of existing case management services to measurably improve long-term outcomes for children	Reduction in preventable ER visits and hospitalizations; 3 specialty clinics opened	First 5 Kern; Health Net; Kaiser Permanente; Kern Health Systems, LPFCH-5Cs; San Joaquin Community Hospital
Desert/Mountain Children Center (DMCC)	Linda Llamas	Students with IEPs AND Students in General Education with Medi-Cal Eligibility; Age 0-21yrs.	San Bernardino County; Est. 2003	San Bernardino Behavioral Health Dept. AND Desert/Mountain (DM) SELPA	DM SELPA and its DMCC division work together to coordinate resources to provide mental health services to general and special education students	Increase and stabilization of adaptive behaviors in the home, community and school	AB 602 Special Education funds; AB 114 Educationally-Related Mental Health Services funds; Medi-Cal EPSDT

* The Lucile Packard Foundation for Children's Health has provided funding and technical assistance through the California Community Care Coordination Collaborative (5Cs) to pilot coalitions to strengthen interagency care coordination in the following counties: Alameda, Contra Costa, Kern, Fresno, Monterey, Orange, San Joaquin, San Mateo, Shasta/Siskiyou/Trinity, Ventura.