

Lori French outline

- The Commercial Dungeness Crab Families are still reeling from last year's closure.
- The dismal outlook of this year's salmon season is not helping and will likely force some fishermen out of the business.
- The proposed landing tax will just be another harsh blow.
- The crab market has not recovered from the bad media coverage. Low off the boat prices.