

Role of SPI

- The constitutional role of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction would remain unchanged.
- The State Superintendent would continue to serve as an independent and elected statewide constitutional officer, serving as a voice for the people on education matters, and would gain a voting role on the State Board of Education.
- Freed from administrative duties, the SPI would work across early, K12, higher ed by serving on the Board and personally filling seats on UC Regents, CSU Board of Trustees, CalSTRS Board, and CTC.
