Health Spending Has Been Historically Volatile

...and has always outpaced inflation rates

Annual Growth Rates, Health Spending vs. Inflation United States, 1962 to 2012

Notes: Health spending refers to National Health Expenditures. Per capita growth in health spending in 2012 (3.0%) was also greater than inflation's 2.1%.

CA Health Spending as a Share of the Economy Lower than U.S. Average....

California vs. the United States, 1991 to 2009, selected years

*Personal health care (PHC), as reported by Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). See Appendix B for additional detail on spending categories.
Notes: Spending relative to the economy is computed here based on PHC, the most comprehensive measure available at the state level. In many publications, US health spending as a share of GDP is based on national health expenditures, a metric which includes additional spending categories, such as construction, public health activities, and administration.

Individual Market: Premium Rate Increases

Existing Products - 2011 to 2014

Notes: Because many 2014 products are new, they are not associated with a rate increase and therefore not reflected here.
