

Jeffrey Rideout, MD, Chief Executive Officer, Integrated Healthcare Association

Jeff Rideout is President and CEO of the Integrated Healthcare Association (IHA), a California leadership group representing health plans, hospital systems, physician groups and other healthcare stakeholders. Dr. Rideout is responsible for management of all IHA programs and activities, including its nationally recognized Align. Measure. Perform (AMP) programs, performance measurement and payment innovation initiatives, and efforts to enhance the adoption of health information technology and improve healthcare affordability. Prior to joining IHA, Dr. Rideout was the Senior Medical Advisor for Covered California, the California Health Insurance Exchange, supporting clinical quality, network management, and delivery system reform related to the 1.1 million Californians enrolled through the exchange. Previously he was Senior Vice President and Chief Medical Officer for The TriZetto Group, leading strategy around development and delivery of a comprehensive suite of products and services that enable payers, providers and employers improve the cost and quality of care for consumers. Dr. Rideout also served as the global leader of the healthcare division for Cisco Systems Internet Business Solutions Group, and Cisco's Chief Medical Officer, working with health care and public sector leaders to help them use technology to accelerate transformation of the health care industry. Prior to Cisco, Dr. Rideout was Chief Medical Officer and SVP for Blue Shield of California. He has also supported numerous venture backed companies and venture capital firms in board, advisory and management roles. Dr. Rideout also holds academic appointments with Stanford University as Consulting Professor, Department of Health Research and Policy, and the University of California, Berkeley Haas School of Business, teaching on topics related to healthcare technology, services and innovation. Dr. Rideout completed his residency training in internal medicine at University of California, San Francisco and is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians. He received his medical degree from Harvard Medical School and his undergraduate degree from Stanford University. He also holds a master's degree in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics from Oxford University where he studied as a Rhodes Scholar.

Doug P. McKeever, Chief Deputy Executive Director, Covered California

Doug McKeever joined Covered California in 2017 and serves as Chief Deputy Executive Director for Program at Covered California. In his role, he provides executive leadership for the Plan Management, Outreach and Sales, Marketing, and Service Center divisions, with a staff of close to 1,000 employees under his leadership. He is responsible for developing and implementing plans to increase growth and improve consumer services and health plan relations. He has deep experience with the development and implementation of state and national policies relating to health benefits, as well as its rate negotiation strategies. Mr. McKeever joined Covered California after serving as the Deputy Executive Officer overseeing Benefits, Program, Policy and Planning for the California Public Employees Retirement System where he was responsible for the all areas related to health care and contracts with health carriers, billing reconciliation, long-term care and state and federal health care and pension policy, legislation and regulations.

Kathy Donneson, D.PA., Chief, Health Plan Administration Division, Health Policy and Benefits Branch, California Public Employees' Retirement System

Dr. Kathleen Donneson is Chief, Health Plan Administration Division, Health Policy and Benefits Branch, California Public Employees' Retirement System. Dr. Donneson oversees Health Maintenance Organization, Preferred Provider Organization health plan contracts, pharmacy benefit manager programs, three association plan offerings, and the Long-Term Care program. Her duties include managing health and long-term care operations and procurements, health benefits and long-term care funding, capitation and fee for service premium distribution, clinical programs and benefits, member grievances and appeals, carrier financial reporting, and provider network performance. Under her leadership, the Health Plan Administration Division evaluates alternative benefit and clinical designs, implements Affordable Care Act reforms, and conducts business planning, operations, and oversight for programs that serve 1.5 million members with over $9 billion in health benefits and $4 billion in long-term care (LTC) benefits. Dr. Donneson holds a Doctorate and Master of Public Administration from the University of Southern California (USC), MPA/HSA degree from the University of San Francisco, and a B.S., Biological Sciences from U.C. Davis. She has taught graduate courses in health and public policy, management, research, and information systems for USC, University of Maryland European Division, UCSF, and California State University, Hayward. In 2012, Dr. Donneson retired as a Colonel in the Air Force Medical Service where she served in the U.S., Germany, and retired from Osan AB, Korea. She is a Desert Storm Veteran.

Bill Kramer, MBA, Executive Director, National Health Policy, Pacific Business Group on Health

Bill Kramer is Executive Director for National Health Policy at the Pacific Business Group on Health (PBGH). In this role, he leads PBGH's work to advance public policy in ways that improve health care quality and reduce costs. Bill also serves as Project Director for the Consumer Purchaser Alliance, a collaborative led by PBGH and the National Partnership for Women & Families to improve the quality and affordability of health care. Bill serves on the National Quality Forum's Board of Directors, the Measure Applications Partnership Coordinating Committee, and the Patient Centered Primary Care Collaborative's Board of Directors. Prior to joining PBGH in 2010, Bill led his own consulting practice in which he provided policy analysis, strategic guidance and technical assistance on health reform issues in Oregon and at the national level. He also provided consulting services in the areas of finance and business strategy to health systems and insurers. Prior to developing his consulting practice, Bill was a senior executive with Kaiser Permanente for over 20 years. Bill holds an MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business and a Bachelor of Arts from Harvard.

Christopher Perrone, Director of Improving Access, California Health Care Foundation

Christopher Perrone is director of the California Health Care Foundation's (CHCF) Improving Access team, which works to improve access to coverage and care for low-income Californians. Chris was previously director of the foundation's Health Reform and Public Programs initiative, where he led efforts to improve the policies and practices that shape Medi-Cal and other publicly funded health care programs, and to promote greater transparency and accountability within these programs.

Prior to joining CHCF, Chris served as director of planning for the Massachusetts Division of Medical Assistance. He was the first external recipient of the Globe Award, given by the Office of Strategic Planning at Health Care Financing Administration (now CMS), for his work to improve the delivery and financing of acute and long-term care services for low-income seniors. He has also held positions with The Lewin Group, the American Psychological Association, and the Center for Health Policy Studies at Georgetown University. Chris received a bachelor's degree from the University of California, Berkeley, and a master's degree in public policy from Harvard University.

Robert Moore, MD, MPH, Chief Medical Officer, Partnership Health Plan

Dr. Moore serves as Chief Medical Officer of Partnership HealthPlan of California, a County Organized Health System providing Medi-Cal Managed Care services to 550,000 members in 14 Northern California counties. He is a graduate of the UCSF School of Medicine, the Columbia University School of Public Health, Western Governor's University Graduate Business School, and the Family Medicine residency at Ventura County Medical Center. He has completed post-graduate training in Health Center Management, Health Care Leadership, and Quality Improvement. His professional interests include delivery system transformation, palliative care, intensive outpatient care management, chronic pain, and addressing social determinants of health.

Melissa Marshall, MD, Chief Executive Officer, CommuniCare Health Centers

Dr. Melissa Marshall serves as the Chief Executive Officer for CommuniCare Health Centers in Davis, California, federally-qualified health center organization which serves one in eight Yolo County residents. Prior to being named CEO, Dr. Marshall was the Chief Medical Officer for three years. She represents CommuniCare at Partnership Health Plan's Physician Advisory Committee, serves on the Board of the Western Clinician's Network, and as the chair of Yolo County Medical Directors' committee. Dr. Marshall came to CommuniCare Health Centers from her role as the Chief Medical Officer of Community Health Center Network (CHCN). CHCN serves as the network and management services organization for Alameda County's eight federally-qualified health centers. Dr. Marshall previously served as the Associate Medical Director for Family Care Health Centers, in St. Louis, Missouri, where she provided full-spectrum medical care with an emphasis on maternal and child health. Dr. Marshall received her undergraduate degree from Stanford University, her medical degree from Washington University in St. Louis, and then completed her Family Medicine residency at University of California at Davis Medical Center. Dr. Marshall has served on numerous boards and committees to improve the quality of healthcare in the safety net. She has overseen medical missions overseas to Nepal and Honduras and always enjoys a new adventure, her most recent of which is settling in Winters and raising chickens.

Theresa Cho, MD, Medical Director for Ambulatory Care Quality, Ventura County Health Care

Theresa Cho, MD is a physician dedicated to ensuring that all patients, especially people with chronic diseases, have access to quality health care. Her roles as Medical Director of Ambulatory Care Quality Improvement and as Director of the Las Islas Diabetes Center are linked by a commitment to advancing population health in Ventura County. Dr. Cho is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland School of Medicine. She completed residency training at the Ventura County Medical Center (VCMC), and she is board certified in Family Medicine. After residency, Dr. Cho worked at VCMC as a hospitalist and then joined the residency faculty. She received several teaching awards as a faculty attending physician. She continues to teach residents and leads the hospital diabetes management team. Her work on improving the care of hospitalized patients with diabetes earned her the "Code Insulin" award from the residents as well as from Insulindependence, a non-profit organization supporting the diabetes community. Dr. Cho has been in practice for over twenty years, providing full-spectrum primary care for a decade before focusing primarily on diabetes. For the past ten years, she has directed the Las Islas Diabetes Center in Oxnard, California, which provides a multi-disciplinary team approach to patient care. Having grown up in Los Angeles, she is fluent in Spanish and enjoys caring for people in a setting much like the one she grew up in. Dr. Cho's leadership roles include serving as the vice-chair of the Strategic Planning Resourcing Council and as the current VCMC Chief of Staff. She enjoys trivia games and traveling with her husband and three children.

Beau Hennemann, Director of Special Programs, Anthem Blue Cross

Beau Hennemann is the Director of Special Programs for Anthem Blue Cross - California Medicaid. In this role, Beau has statewide responsibility for directing and overseeing the operations, business strategy and alignment for special programs such as Long Term Services and Supports (LTSS), Health Homes, Whole Person Care, Palliative Care, and Social Determinants of Health. This includes responsibility for program performance, provider and community collaboration/engagement, behavioral health integration, clinical care management, policy development, process improvement/program enhancements, managing interdependencies and risks, and developing growth opportunities. Beau has over 18 years of experience in program development and implementation within LTSS and other Medicaid-based programs, in both public and private organizations. Prior to working at Anthem, Beau served as Senior Manager of Home and Community Based Services at L.A. Care Health Plan where he oversaw the transition of In-Home Supportive Services and the Multipurpose Senior Services Program into managed care benefits, the development of a Care Plan Options program, and the development of collaborative relationships with community-based organizations working to assist individuals with their psycho-social needs. Beau also spent over 11 years working for the Los Angeles County IHSS Public Authority. Beau is a graduate of the University of Missouri, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business and Public Administration.

Mari Cantwell, MPP, Chief Deputy Director for Health Care Programs, Department of Health Care Services

Mari Cantwell was appointed Chief Deputy Director of Health Care Programs for the Department of Health Care Services in February of 2013, and assumed the responsibility as the State Medicaid Director in February 2015. She is responsible for the overall management of Health Care Delivery Systems, Health Care Financing, and Health Care Benefits and Eligibility. These responsibilities allow the department to fulfill its primary mission of the provision of health benefits to the citizenry of California. Prior to her appointment, Mari served as the Deputy Director, Health Care Financing, where she was responsible for the development, promotion, and implementation of health care delivery systems to the beneficiaries of the State Medi-Cal program. Before joining the Department, from 2005-2011, Mari worked at the California Association of Public Hospitals & Hospitals as the Vice President, Finance Policy. Mari received her Masters of Public Policy from the University of California at Los Angeles, Luskin School of Public Affairs, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Policy and American Institutions from Brown University.

Jacey Cooper, Senior Advisor for Health Care Programs, Department of Health Care Services

Ms. Cooper has many years of experience in health care management, including health policy at the national, state, and local levels. She joined DHCS in April 2016 as the Assistant Deputy Director, Health Care Delivery Systems (HCDS). In this role, Ms. Cooper was responsible for overseeing the planning, implementation, coordination, evaluation, and management of the Department's HCDS services, programs, and policies. Prior to this, Ms. Cooper worked as the Vice President of Administrative Services at Kern Medical Center (KMC). In her time at KMC, Ms. Cooper served in many roles including Executive Director of Managed Care and Special Projects Manager. As Vice President, she was the principal on the transition from a county owned and operated public hospital, to the Kern County Hospital Authority. Ms. Cooper was also responsible for the design, implementation, and ongoing management of the county indigent program, Low Income Health Program, Delivery System Reform Incentive Program, and self-funded County Employee EPO health plan for Kern County. Through this work, Ms. Cooper has gained over ten years of experience in health care policy, integrated delivery models, managed care, business development, quality monitoring, care management programs, physical and behavioral health integration, care transitions, and direct patient services.